- 2005: Certificate in Conflict Resolution Specializing in Mediation Skills awarded by Mediation Services, Winnipeg.
- 2007: Certified as Chartered Mediator by the ADR Institute of Canada.

EXPERIENCE:

In addition to my studies in Philosophy, English, and Law, I consider myself particularly fortunate in having been trained in, and used throughout my careers, three different but related skills—conflict resolution, advocacy, and teaching.

Conflict Resolution:

- 1970–71: Community Organizer, Institute of Urban Studies, University of Winnipeg. In charge of Roosevelt Park Action Research Project within core area of Winnipeg. Organized various community groups, some single-interest (such as tenants), and some community-based. Active as well in other action-area research projects initiated by the IUS (including Windsor Park, Community Television). Extensive training in group work, facilitation, and strategy formulation.
- 1984–91: On panel appointed by Manitoba Labour Board to sit as neutral arbitrator in labour-management matters, and acted as such in numerous labour arbitrations. Extensive adjudication experience; some mediation-arbitration experience as well.

- 1988–89: Vice-Chair, Manitoba Labour Board. Sat as chair on numerous hearings involving labour relations, workplace safety and health, and employment standards. Extensive adjudication experience; some mediation experience as well.
- 1998–2003: Partner, CMS Conflict Management Specialists, a partnership of labour law practitioners and mediators providing an interest-based approach to resolving conflict in labour-management relations.
- 2001–2006, 2012-: Mediator, facilitator, and arbitrator, in disputes in Human Rights, Northern Flood Agreement, and Treaty Land Entitlement matters.
- 2002–2005: Project Facilitator in the Qualifications Recognition Initiative of the Province of Manitoba; involved meeting with professional organizations, immigrant groups, Manitoba government departments, businesses, to deal with the issue of qualifications recognition for immigrants and to develop a consensus among government departments for dealing with the issue.
- 2007–: Conflict Resolution through Cherniack & Cherniack Law Corporation. Mediator of disputes relating to construction, human rights, employment (employee-employee disputes, including disputes at the highest level of management, supervisor-employee disputes, and disputes within larger groups at the workplace), aboriginal, professional discipline, and community conflicts. Retired from the legal profession 2016. Restricted practice in conflict resolution—mediation, arbitration, adjudication, investigation, facilitation .
- 2008–: The Workplace Ombudsman service providing a complete service to small and mid-size employers for resolving conflict at the workplace.
- 2008–: Adjudicator hearing claims from survivors of Indian Residential Schools concerning sexual and physical abuse. Appointed through the Indian Residential Schools Adjudication Secretariat. Investigatorial adjudication.

Legal Advocacy:

- 1975–84: Articled with, then employed by, and ultimately in partnership with, the law firm which is now Myers LLP. Extensive involvement in criminal, administrative, and labour law, with experience as well in civil litigation and family law, and some experience in corporate work. Appeared before all courts in Manitoba, and the Supreme Court of Canada.
- 1984–85: Contract position as a senior solicitor with Public Interest Law Department, Legal Aid Manitoba. Extensive involvement in public education, administrative law, and community and public rights.

- 1985–2006: In partnership with Cherniack Smith. Extensive involvement in labour law, administrative law, aboriginal law, and various consulting work in that area; involvement as well in civil litigation and constitutional law. Consulting for various non-profit organizations on corporate matters. Advisor to administrative tribunals.
- 2007–2010 : Sole practitioner with Cherniack & Cherniack Law Corporation. Legal advice to administrative tribunals.

Teaching:

Co-founder and coördinator of the Winnipeg Free University, a volunteer organization which in the late 1960s at various times had over 50 teachers (many of them University professors) and over 400 students. Created and taught approximately ten courses at the Free University.
